With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Rebecca Lynn Day, who departed this life on June 5, 2025, at the age of 61.

Born on July 1, 1963, and raised in Buford, Georgia, Lynn lived a life filled with love, purpose, and grace. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, teacher, and friend—someone whose warmth, intelligence, and passion left a lasting impression on everyone she met.

She pursued higher education with dedication, earning her bachelor's degree from Brenau University, a master's degree in education from the University of North Georgia, and a specialist degree in education from Lincoln Memorial University. Her academic achievements reflected her commitment to excellence and lifelong learning.

For many years, Lynn dedicated herself to educating young minds as a teacher in Gwinnett and Hall County schools. Known for her intelligence and perseverance, she always finished anything she started, seeing challenges through to the end with determination and grace.

Outside the classroom, Lynn was a gifted cook who delighted family and friends with her culinary talents. She enjoyed playing tennis, traveling the world, savoring a good glass of wine, and listening to her favorite country music. A woman of deep faith, Lynn was a proud believer in God, drawing strength and comfort from her spirituality throughout her life.

“ Lynn and I had a such a fun friendship. I was her hairdresser, so if you know, you know. We shared it all. Good and bad, happy and sad. She was a beautiful person inside and out. She loved all her family and friends beyond words. Prayers of comfort to you all in the difficult times ahead.

“ Met Lynn during a March 2025 cruise. We shared 10 days of fun and relaxation. During that time, she spoke volumes of her daughters and grand daughter. How fortunate she was! My husband and I are saddened by Lynn's prompt passing.

Lynn was my first best friend. We went to school together throughout elementary, but lost touch after I moved. We found each other again on social media. Her good character was evident even as a child. I have a lot of memories of those days. One of these memories is going to her house after school. On one occasion , her grandmother made us biscuits and gravy for an after-school snack. Buford was still quite "country" back then. If we were given the opportunity to live close to each other again, I'm sure we would have picked up right where we left off. I'm very sorry for her family's tremendous loss.
