“Reda and Merle were the best friends. Rick and I enjoyed many great times with them. Reda was always a little firecracker that loved life to the fullest. I am shocked and so sad for Merle and the whole family. Rest in peace sweet girl and you will be sorely missed!

“I didn't know Reda personally but I do know Merle, Brian and a Granddaughter because they lease some hunting property near my farm. They have become very good friends and have invited me over for many, many home cooked meals, that I am so appreciative. Merle has talked quite a bit about Reda, especially since the stroke she suffered. I like and enjoy them because they are simple, kind and ole country folks just like me.
May Reda Reed - Rest In Peace - and Good Lord, please Lay Your Loving Hands on this Family during this Time of Grief. You are All in My Thoughts and Prayers.

“ My heart is broken for all of you , Merle, Brian & Chelsey, Jason & Paige, Morgan, Chase & Baby Dutton, who Reda was so excited to meet, love & spoil, Lauren, Katelyn, Ricky & all Reda’s family, her Hardware Specialties family whom she loved so much and for all her many friends like myself who will miss this precious lady so tremendously! Rest in Heaven my sweet friend & partner in crime for over 50 years! We've laughed, cried and prayed together & today I've shed the tears. We've always ended our talks with saying Love Y'all & we love all of you 💔🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏!
