“ I worked with Reggie and Patsy in Peachtree Corners for a long time. They were so much fun to work with! Reggie had such beautiful hair we were always trying to be the first in line to cut it! He took great care of us. He loved his family, church, his friends who were his clients. I grew up with them around me. They were both so excited when they started having children. The look of joy was unbelievable. To think we got to share that joy with them. He and Patsy will always have a place in my heart! Reggie sent me via facebook the same music that I loved growing up as kid! I thank God I had the pleasure of knowing him and his wonderful wife Patsy!

“ Reggie and I were in choir together at Johns Creek Baptist Church. Every Wednesday we had practice and Reggie even came after dialysis. A devoted man of God was happy to have spent time with him. Your our guardian Angel rejoicing with the Lotd.

“ I met Reggie on his birthday in 1974. I had an appointment with a new hairdresser whom I had never met. A previous customer had brought him an enormous piece of cake. I followed him from shop to shop until he had to retire. We became good friends, along with Patsy, and shared many life experiences with each other. We prayed for each other during hard times and rejoiced with each other during good times. Rest In peace Reggie.

I don't want to believe that Reggie's gone...It was Oct. or early Nov. when he came to my home to cut and color my hair...and was so proud of the results! Always at the salon clients were amazed at me as a before and after appointment & Reggie loved the results too! Reggie, for years not steadily but off and on, showed me homes as we looked for a ranch style home that I needed as I aged, and Patsy was looking with us some. He was my Agent in the purchase of the home I am in today. We talked about the music we loved and the food we loved too. I know he's in Heaven either singing with the choir or cooking in the kitchen. Sympathy to the son, daughter and grandchildren he loved so much and was so proud of.
