Regina, you will be missed by so many. We use to laugh at the mist silly thing's. We had our share of ups and down and we sang about Cabbages & Kings. We had many great memories together. You were always looking out for everyone else. You shared so much love, wisdom and never gave up on people or life in general. You will never be forgotten and Tony, Frankie and I love you dearly. You were one of the most strongest women I've ever met. You always brightened a room with your smile. Tha k you Regina for always keeping thing's real. Fly high my friend ❤️❤️
