“ Dear Mona, Matt, Robin and Joe, I was so saddened to learn today of Kent's passing - not for him, but for those of us who will miss his presence among us. What a kind, warm man he was, one who always was willing to do whatever task needed to be done. He always made the occasion fun. He loved his Lord and his family. I know those who had gone before him were so happy to welcome him to his eternal home, as he heard his Lord and Savior say "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." My thoughts and prayers will be with you all during this very difficult time.
