“ I was so sad to read of Preacher Crooks passing. I know he's home now, the place I heard him preach of many times. Preacher Crook was literally my very first pastor. My family attended Old Ocoee Baptist Church in Benton, TN and they took me for my first service whenever I was 2 weeks old. And they continued to raise us in church until we were out on our own. Preacher Crook always held a special place in my heart because some people made some accusations about my Moma making me mind in church and that she spanked me. The point of this story is that Preacher Crook stood up for Moma and Daddy. I'll always be thankful for that and for the love he showed our family. You all are in our prayers.

“ Dear Inez amd family,

Sorry to hear about Clydes homegoing but; he is in a better home now!!! Mart and I enjoyed crossing paths with you and being associated with you in Church. Looked forward Inez to seeing how pretty and neat you always looked and that Clyde always in a suite. God was ready for him to come join his other family members who are already there.

We love you Inez and Gods blessings on you and your family.
