

Rex Davis

December 24, 2016

Brother Rex "Rafford" Davis 71, was born June 5, 1945 in Perry, Mississippi to the late Curtis and Jennie Williams Davis. Rex moved to Saginaw, Michigan at a young age. Rex was predeceased by two sisters, Elgie Davis and Mary Shields and three brothers Excell Davis, Odell Davis, and J.C. Davis.

Rex accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at the early age of 16. He enjoyed spending his time attending church and reading his Bible. Rex was a very dedicated Church member. His favorite song was "Amazing Grace". After an illness resulted in Rex being in a coma, he awakened out of the coma loudly singing "Amazing Grace". This special moment touched the hearts of the nurses who were present at the time he awoke. Rex recited the entire Psalm 23 to anyone that would listen. Rex truly loved the Lord until he passed.

Rex is survived by three sisters, Nancy Lard of Moultrie, Georgia, Pauline Davis of Moultrie Georgia, and Dorothy Glenn (George) of North Carolina and two brothers, Curtis Davis, Jr. (Joan) of Louisville, Mississippi, and Arthur Davis (Mary) of Moultrie, Georgia. He also leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews, a very special nephew Cyrus G. Davis (Patricia), and a very special niece Dr. Melissa Davis. Rex was employed at General Motors in Saginaw, Michigan.

On December 24, 2016, Rex peacefully passed away. His nephew, Cyrus G. Davis and his wife, Patricia Davis lovingly cared for Rex until his passing.
