“ Very sorry to hear about brother Rex. We connected years ago after finding out we had the same dad. Thank you for sharing and giving me some memories I never had. It was an honor to meet Ann and Lisa as well. We lost contact many years ago because it was never my intention to disrupt your wonderful family. I wish you all the very best, thank you for the void you filled for me and RIP my brother Rex.

“ My prayers go out to the family. Rex and I played in the band together in high school. He had a wonderful sense of humor and was a joy to be around. He loved to play the theme from “Hawaii Five-0.” Rest In Peace my old friend.

“ Ann, Lisa and others:
*In these Covid days, it feels really strange not having regular services at times like these. I was so shocked when Ken told me of Rex's passing, I guess in part because he was so full of life. We spent so much time together in the 70's, at the lake, etc. And of course, I knew him long before that. The last time I saw him, he stopped by Ken's house one afternoon, I think near the end of June, and I spent some time with Rex, Ken and Chad on Ken's porch. It's a shame that I have not gotten around to getting in touch with Rex (and ya'll) more in recent years.
Let me know if you make some arrangements, or if I can do anything to help.*

“ Prayers for all the family and friends of Rex. I met Rex in the 8th grade at NGHS. He was like a brother to me from the beginning. I can't remember just one of the good times we had, I remember them all. There was never a dull moment when Rex was around. He could cheer you up no matter your weakness or problems. I will miss him, his laugh and his joking around. Bask in his memory and think of the joy he brought to all of our lives. Rest peacefully my friend. Bill Harper

“ Dearest Lisa and family,
I am saddened to learn of Rex's passing.
Please accept my deepest condolences for your loss. As I reminisce our school days, I am reminded of the fond memories we have created to cherish in times of remembrance and loss. May you find comfort and strength in the love of family and friends during your time of sorrow. My thoughts and prayers are with you. May God bless you today, tomorrow and always.

“ ONE AFTERNOON ABOUT TWO WEEKS AGO I WAS STOPPED AT MY MAILBOX. I LOOKED ON THE OTHER SIDE OF MY CAR IT WAS A GUY I ROLLED DOWN MY WINDOW. HE SAID HOW ARE YOU DOING I SAID PRETTY GOOD. I SAID I DON'T THINK I KNOW YOU. HE TOOK OFF HIS SUN GLASSES AND SAID I AM REX. HE WAS SO NICE SAID IF I EVER NEEDED ANYTHING LET HIM KNOW. I THANKED HIM AND OFF HE RODE LAST TIME I SAW HIM. MY HEART WAS BROKEN WHEN I HEARD OF HIS PASSING. ANN AND LISA YOU ALL WILL BE IN MY PRAYERS. LOVE TO ALL
