“ Papa Dick was an incredible man. He was full of life and always made you smile when you were around him. What I loved most about this man was watching him with Pat. The look in their eyes when they were together was magical. Thank you God for giving us this wonderful man that taught us all something about life. Love you and will see you again.

“ Papa Dick was a wonderful person. He was always caring, helpful, loving and very funny to me. I will miss the 'sheriff' always pattering around the neighborhood on the golf cart visiting folks, telling jokes, and keeping his eyes open for us. I was honored enough to help Dick with the American flags the last few years. Dick and Pat brought me in to their family with open arms. They mean the world to me and I will greatly miss Dick. You are missed. You are blessed.
