“ Although my time working with Kevin was brief, it was truly a privilege to know him. He was a remarkable person—warm, engaging, and always ready to lend a helping hand.

Even though we didn't have the opportunity to work together this year, it meant a lot to me that he checked in on me regularly and recently took the time to congratulate me on a project. I'm sure for him it was quite a simple and natural gesture, but it just goes to show how attentive and kind he was to others.

He will be greatly missed. I offer my prayers and deepest condolences to Kevin's family and to all who knew and loved him.

“ I thoroughly enjoyed the time I had with Kevin. He carried with him a warm, kind and positive energy which filled the space he was in and uplifted everyone around him.

My thoughts are with the Henderson family on their loss of such a lovely gentleman. He often spoke of how proud he was of his children and told stories of the vacations he enjoyed with his family.

I'll miss you Kevin, and look back on the times we had together with a smile.

“ My deepest condolences to Kevin's family and to everyone who knew and loved him.

Kevin sat right next to me in the Sage office, he was my right-hand work buddy. No matter what we were working on or how busy we were, we always found time to laugh or joke about something funny from the day. He was always so thoughtful, supportive, caring, and very talented. He was always there to lend a helping hand. I'll always remember how insightful he was as I studied for my LSS certification and how he regularly showed me how it could apply to our team projects. And I'll never forget how kind he was to my family when my MIL passed away driving hours for her visitation to support us. Meeting him was a blessing my husband John, and our girls will forever appreciate.

Kevin was a dear colleague and dear friend, and I will miss him immensely. He will always hold a special place in my heart. Praying for comfort to all who knew and loved him.

“ I did not work with Kevin personally at Sage but sat across from him. He and I talked and interacted occasionally, chuckling about our love of popcorn (he was always eating popcorn) and the nervous energy of bouncing/tapping our leg while deep in work. He was always so friendly, with such a calm and pleasant demeanor!

I offer my prayers and condolences to his family and loved ones.

“ I worked with Kevin for about 15 years, and I can't think of one instance where he wasn't a great person to be around. When I sat next to him in the Lawrenceville office, he often spoke about his children, which was one of Kev's favorite topics. He was a family man who loved sharing stories with his team. Kevin could always be counted on to level set things. He was thoughtful, caring, and just an all-around decent man. Even after I became a remote employee, Kevin and I still had opportunities to catch up. What I will always remember is that whatever Kevin was working on, he brought passion and commitment with him. You could count on him to be the calm voice of reason in every encounter. My condolences go out to Kevin's family and to all who had the privilege of being in his circle. We are all better for having known him. RIP Kevin.

“ To Kevin's family,
We are so sorry for your loss. The Sage office will not be the same without Kevin. He and I started working at Sage around the same time, and I am privileged to have known and worked with him. He was always calm and assured, kind and quick with a smile, and very talented. I so enjoyed my interactions with him. We have lost a dear friend. We wish you strength during this difficult time.
