Kay, I was so sad to hear of Ricky's passing. Ricky, Caude and I were best friends starting in kindergarten. His entire family was special to us. His father has the same birthday as my father and they were great friends. My husband was a good friend of Alan's and Ricky, Joe and Steve's ages were the same as mine, Rita's and Bob's. Ricky would eat so much at our house, he would say, "My eyes are swimming in biscuit and gravy." It's the end of a fun group of friends. Thinking of you, Kay and Ricky's much loved family.
