

Richard Wing Seguire

May 20, 2016

Richard (Dick) Wing Seguire of Gainesville, GA passed away on May 20, 2016. Dick was the son of the late Ralph and Grace Wing Seguire of Massena, New York. He was married to M. Patricia Kloser Seguire of Gainesville, GA. Dick graduated from Massena High School, Massena, New York. He received his B.A. from Michigan State and his M.Ed. From Cornell University. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War.

At the State University of New York, Delhi, New York, from which he retired in 1989, he was responsible for originating the program in Hotel and Restaurant Management, now commonly known as the Hospitality and Culinary Arts Program. He had an assignment lecturing and teaching with the Riyadh Intercontinental Hotel in Saudi Arabia and in various college locations in China. He assisted other colleges in developing similar programs before retirement. His previous work experiences included stints with chain hotels, and ownership-management of a Vermont resort. Throughout his years, he served on numerous community committees and boards.

Dick is survived by his wife of Gainesville, GA; son, Eric Ralph (Tina); granddaughter, Abigail Seguire, and Trevor Spencer of Walton, NY. He was predeceased by his parents, his sister, May Alice Corey, and son, Lee Kloser Seguire.

Memorials in the Seguire name may be made to either Woodland Cemetery Association in Delhi, New York, or to the State University of New York at Delhi, for the Hospitality Scholarship Fund in his name.

A Memorial Service will be held at Notre Dame, South Bend, IN in July, and interment of ashes will be in Delhi, New York.

“ Thinking of you Pat.

The year with Dick and you in Riyadh was magical, and made a life long impression on me, and Dick's work there is a lasting memorial to him and his talents.

“ Dearest Pat, Thinking of you at this sad time. I look back with happy memories to your visit here in France 14 years ago. Dick's laughter as we sat enjoying a drink under the trees in Cucuron. And more distant memories from over than 40 years ago in Riyadh with Eric and Lee. With affection. Kathyxxx
