“ I recall our long summer days at the pool when the girls were kids like it was yesterday. Richard was always so much fun to hang out with. I loved his sense of humor and we especially enjoyed people watching, he always had funny commentary. He loved to tell tails from the Hackers Tournaments, according to Richard he was the biggest Hack of all. In recent times we still enjoyed his sense of humor on Facebook along with his on target political views. Yup that New Jersey boy was one of a kind, we were honored to know him and his wonderful family.

“ In August 2016 at the Emerald Isle HACK, against the odds and all the pundits Ricky accurately called the election for Trump.
