“ Susie, Ashley and Eric, you are in our thoughts and prayers and we were so sorry to hear of the loss of Dick. He was a good friend and neighbor and we just learned of his passing today. May peace and comfort come to you all through friends and family.

“ I remember my first and only year at St. Anthony's in West End, you befriended me. We both were a little wild and crazy in high school, but we turned out good. We lost track of each other over the years, but I will always consider you my friend. God Bless, old friend and God speed!

“ When loved ones fall asleep in death, we can gain comfort and encouragement by keeping in mind the loving resurrection provision made by God when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9, John 3:16). Jesus' words recorded at John 11:25 assure us: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." God is faithful and always keeps his promises!

“ Dickie was a great friend at BHS. I always admired him and longed to see him again. We only met one time after high school and I was so glad to see how successful he had become in his career and family. I was hoping to see him again at this years reunion. My prayer is for God's peace to be with all his family at this difficult time.
