To All the Cleary Cousins,

Please accept our most sincere condolences on the loss of your Mother, Grandmother - Rita T. Cleary.

Time, life and careers have physically taken us from the proximity of New England and to our somewhat routine family gatherings to distant areas where only occasionally do our paths now cross.

Memories of our youth are perhaps the sweetest and most cherished as they are not yet tainted with the realities of life.

It is those memories of our families that will remain foremost in my mind and I hope in yours as well - especially in the days that are to come as all of us reflect upon the life of Rita Cleary - Mother, Grandmother, Godmother, Aunt.

With loving memories and heartfelt sympathy,

Kenneth & Sharon Bailey

“ We were saddened to hear about the passing of Aunt Rita.

She touched many lives in her 88 years and we have many fond memories of visits to Peabody and Dunwoody through the years.

Our deepest condolences to the entire Cleary Family during this time and please know our thoughts are with you.
