“ I am very sorry for your loss. I pray that God's promise for the future can help you to endure this pain. He promises to breathe life back into the precious ones that we have lost! "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, you residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, and the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." Isaiah 26:19
