“Karl, Karen and Kathy, I'm very sorry for your loss. We always called your dad "Brother" or "Cousin Brother," since he was my mother's cousin. She was Angleen Koch Jordan ("Baby Sis"; we loved those family nicknames!). I have good memories of family gatherings, including one at Logtown. You're in my prayers.

“You will be sorely missed. You had many good qualities, but one that I especially enjoyed was your keen sense of humor. You seemed to have a unique philosophy on life. I'm sure that's one reason you lived such a long life. May you rest in Peace. 🕊️
