“ Darling,

We miss and love you so much. It is so hard to give you up as you were a vital and needed part of our lives. You were always there for whatever we needed be it whatever. Granddaddy and I will miss you beyond explanation. I have always heard God wants the best and he picked you. He will also heal our broken hearts and give us the strength we need to face the days ahead. One day we will be reunited together and I'm looking forward to that rejoicing day. We love you so much, granny and granddaddy.

“ My deepest sympathy in the loss of Robert. Even though your hearts may be heavy with grief ,please remember that our heavenly Father also feels your grief(1Peter 5:7) and through his word the Bible He offers comfort to help us cope. Psalm 34:18.

“ It's hard to know what to say or do when someone you love is called home. I've sat here numb, unable to do my daily routine, unable to think beyond the next few days, and I am not a blood relative. I can not imagine the pain his family is going through, but my prayers are with them all. My extended family, I offer prayer that God helps you ease your sorrow. Look around, Brandon is with us all in things we see, songs we hear and the children he made. He will always be with us.

“ I am so deeply saddened to hear of Brandon's passing at such a young age. There are no words that I feel would ever be adequate enough for a situation such as this. I am praying so hard for some sort of peace and understanding for all of you at this time. He was such a handsome little boy, and he grew into a very handsome man. All my love, Jessica.

“ Kim and Jack: Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. Our hearts are heavy with you. Words cannot express what we feel today. Parents just aren't supposed to bury their children. It should be the other way around. Do wish we could be there with you but praying for comfort and peace. Loving you.
