“ Uncle Bob you was such a great man. You were always so happy and never met a stranger. You were talented with so many things.. building anything, painting, cooking, gardening and loving your family. I still have the toy box you made for my kids 38yrs ago. I love you so much and really can't believe your gone. I know your at peace now. So glad we got to have a great conversation about 9 days before God called you home. Diana I'm so sorry for your loss. I know you made Uncle Bob so happy. Sending prayers for you to get through all this. Till we see each other again....RIP Uncle Bob
