“ We actually heard the awful news last week but our email server has been out. We are so sorry. I had the pleasure of knowing and working with Robert for almost 30 years. Mary Anne and I had the utmost respect for Robert's character and knowledge of the welding and construction industry. We could always be sure that he had the absolute best interests of the people and company in all of his dealings. He never strayed into office politics or let his customers down. Most of all, we counted him and Carol as our very dear friends. Carol, we all miss him and we give your our deepest sympathies.

“ Robert,

We love you and we miss you so much already. The enthusiasm and love you brought to our family at the Orchard was unparalleled. Your selfless nature and genuine spirit was contagious, and you were so gifted and wonderful with children that they'd just flock to you and follow you around at workdays making us all laugh as we tried to get some real work done! There were so many good times and we'll cherish them for the rest of our lives, but for now we just miss you and love you. We will carry on and make you proud, Robert.

Sincerely,

Roger, Brittany, Bennie, Wesley, and Sam Grant
