“ I am a class member of the 1955 graduating class in Greenville, OH.
Rob and I often were seated next to each other in several of our classes.
After graduation I only heard pieces of his life. I understood that he enjoyed traveling with his profession and lived a number of years in Europe where he met his wife.
In recent years I heard that he moved to Georgia.
I am sure because of his work and residences he was unable to attend any of our class reunions.
I remember what a great wit that he had and he was studious.
Surely he was a gentle man all of his fascinating life.
My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
