“ Theres not enough time or space to tell about all the great memories we have shared over my last 43 years of life you Uncle Bobby have always no matter what stood by my side and choices Ive made in life and even when I messed up u was still there to encourage me to move forward and succeed in my dreams! U & Aunt Hope took me into yalls home at a young age and showed me love and excepted me as Ur own befor y'all even had kids! Y'all bought me my first car showed me how to change a alternater in the middle of the night , taught me how to tape off to do paint and body work at Champion ! You didnt strangle me when my now husband stole ur tractor in the middle of the night to get our car unstuck from a sand pit ! The last time I seen u was on the property that u worked hard on to prepare for my wedding!! I can never ever Thank you enough for all the lesson I learned from u or the years together as a family! I just hope u knew just how much I love you ! Fly high in the sky Uncle Bobby shining bright just like u did when u was here!! R.I.P
