Roberto Mesia, age 66, of Buford, GA passed away Thursday, September 8, 2016. He is survived by his wife, Maria Elena Mesia; children, Ivette Mesia, Andrea Mesia, and Emmanuel Mesia. Mr. Mesia was born January 23, 1950 in Lima, Peru. He was a sales representative for Cintas. He loved gardening, playing the guitar, agriculture, and was always up to date in world news, he loved to read a lot and be informed as much as possible.

He loved going places and travel as a family and never alone, it was highly important for him that we would always be together, and still today we are going strong. Two years ago, he had a strong desire to take his children to Peru where he was born and his desire had come true. It was a trip very special for him as he contacted back with his roots and other family members.
