“ These are two of Robin's babies. They were restless and had followed me into our room. They picked up her scent, calmed down and fell sound asleep. They miss their mom deeply.

I met Robin when I was 17. That was 50 years ago. Not only was she my sister in law but my friend and sister. We sometimes had our differences but we always loved each other. Robin helped me during several times in my life when I needed someone's help. She was always there for everyone anytime. I loved her very deeply and will miss her for the rest of my life.
