

Ronald Samuel Brown, Sr.

November 7, 2019

Ronald Samuel Brown, Sr, was born to Rufus and Annetta Hood Brown on July 21, 1963 in Long Island, NY, and he departed this life on Thursday, November 7, 2019 in Duluth, GA. Ronald was preceded in death by grandparents, whom he loved dearly. He leaves to cherish his memories and legacy his wife, Mrs. Tanya Brown, Buford, GA; mother, Annetta Hood Brown; children, Ronald Tarik Brown (Gwen) and Qiara Jeron Brown; step-children, Will Callaway, III and Jaden "JD" Callaway; grandchildren, Kayleigh Brown, Cameron Brown, and Savannah Brown; brothers, Randy Brown, William Paschall, and Marty Paschall; sisters, Menri Alyssa Brown, Renee Simmon (Craig), and Jacinda Issacs (Frank); uncles, Harry Hood and Roy Hood; aunts, Brenda Crocket and Linda Morris; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other associates.

Ronald was blessed with three grandchildren, and he loved them so much. He had the pleasure of seeing them this summer, talked about them often, and looked forward to receiving pictures from Tarik and Gwen, whom he also talked about frequently. Ronald had a special place in his heart for children.

Ronald was a man that lived a spiritual life. He studied with Jehovah Witnesses and invited people to study with him. He believed in taking everything to Jehovah in prayer. With this, he taught his family how to live in a world in which we have so many negative forces, and how to live with these forces.

Ronald loved trucks - big trucks. He actually bought his mother a truck for a present, (and asked her if he could have it back only after she was finished with it). That was the kind of guy he was - always thinking about others and always trying to protect them, while keeping a smile on his face. He had a heart of gold that was as big as outer space. Ronald was a man like no other. He was special to everyone in his own unique way. He will always be remembered... Rest in peace, babe.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 16, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. in the Chapel of Flanigan Funeral Home. Visitation will be 10:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m., Saturday, November 16th at the funeral home.
