“ We will always remember you for your sincere and inviting zest for life. Not a day went by when you weren't reaching out to someone just to say hello. I am truly grateful our paths crossed as you showed me what it means to be a fighter without bitterness, determined without arrogance, and a gentleman above it all. From all of us at the pharmacy, we wish you our deepest condolences.

Ron was my first cousin who I have not seen since the 60's. This comes as a shock I have been trying to reach him and his brother Don for many years.
