“ Rose was my sister and I love her so much she's going to be missed very much I can remember the times that we stayed on the phone and talked for hours I really miss that there's so much I like to tell her right now but one day I'll get a chance I know it's hard for everyone but I hope we all can stay in touch because that's why she will want I know she loved me from the bottom of her heart and I feel the same way I know we would laugh on the phone joke about different things and I know Rudy and JJ she led them to death and I know she gets love Damon and there's one thing I can say she said he was the best man ever he never raise his total voice at her or anything he was the best man that she knows and she loved him so much and she was going to come down to stay here in Baxley but now she's going to come rest in peace here but we have some good times on the phone and that would be me so much I love you Rose and always will love you and dumb sister Diane
