“ *Dear Richard and Ryan,
We know you are feeling overwhelmed at this time, but we want you to know we wish you God's Peace and Comfort. Rosemary's death still doesn't make sense ~ it was all too soon; however she is at peace in her eternal home.
We wish you wonderful memories and the joy of being Rosemary's family.
Fondly, Anne & Richard*

“ To all:

Rosemary was an inspiration to me. I really appreciated her encouragement in my painting.

I will truly miss her but will keep her memory with me.

My heartfelt condolences,

“ I will miss Rosemary who had the most positive attitude toward life. What a joy it was to know her. I know that Rosemary will be keeping her "paint brushes wet" up in heaven.

“ Dearest Williams' Family:

Rosemary has been in my thoughts often. She was a feisty woman with a wonderful sense of humor, strong convictions, and tremendous love for her family (her whole face would light up when talking about Ryan). She will be greatly missed--I didn't know her as well as I would have liked, but she was a true and wonderful friend to my mother. She did many great things, she was a good person, and she connected with others in a genuine way. My thoughts are with you as you experience this great loss. I will always remember her gift for knitting dog sweaters. Her talents knew no bounds; one of my favorite wedding presents is her artwork.

Love,
