“ I’m Sorry to hear about Royce! One of the best carpenters to ever live. I recall him teaching me about copping a trim board! How to place a box of nails in one board! Lol and how to make crown molding so tight yiu had to push it in with a 2x4. He was a character that most should strive to be! His laughter was contagious and his character was beyond anything I’ve ever seen. Rest in the arms of our Lord buddy. You, Frank sudderth and ray sexton keep Heaven laughing! We will see you soon! These men carry a heavy memory in my young heart! I’m thankful for them and hope to see them again soon.
