“ I'm so sorry to hear about sweet Runette. I was lucky enough to get to see her every week when she would come into the salon. Runette always had a beautiful smile and friendly laugh that lit up the room. She will be greatly missed by all that knew her. Praying God's peace for the family. May she Rest In Peace and rise in glory

Runette was a friend for many years. I will miss her greatly. We went to school together for 12 years, we were in a breakfast club together, such a pleasure to spend time with her. My deepest sympathy to Lori and Wayne.

RIP my friend❤️

“ Runette will be sorely missed by everyone, especially me. I have many memories of driving Runette and my grandmother, Ruby Mathis, to lunch, events at church, and Young at Heart Trips. My heart goes out to her entire family at this time as I now there is a void and always will be. Just remember the good times your had with her and you will see her again one day!
