“ Russell was such a kind person who always saw the positive in everyone. He believed in “giving back” and I have many memories of him running groups at Turning Point. I’m sure the angels are smiling as they listen to his deep voice singing the oldies. Love you Russ.

“ Russell was like a big Brother to me. He was soft spoken and kind hearted. We share great memories I felt special that Jennifer shared her big brother with me and my baby sister. My sincere condolences to the entire Robinson Family.
