“ Hey Big Man,

I pray you are enjoying being in the presence of the Lord right now. We had a ton of memories growing up together. I will never forget the many good times we had playing 8th grade football together. I'm so proud of the fact that I was able to spend an awesome season with you.

Ryan, I know you bled green. You will always and forever encompass the spirit and heart of the town we both call home. You are without a doubt, Buford's first son. Even in your passing from this life, you again brought this town together in the spirit of all things good about it! Your life represents what being a man and child of God is all about. Thank you for your example.

Thank you brother for being you. As simple as it sounds, your name and legacy speak for themselves. You are a classic, Ryan Daniel; the last of your breed. I thank the Lord that I was able to know you and I can't wait to see you again.

I Love You,

“ *Ms Sandra and Dara...
My wife and I are truly sorry for your loss. Ryan was one of the first young men our son TJ became friends with here back in 1994. It's been a great journey to watch him grow into a selfless man who would help anyone. He always had a great smile for any of us when he greeted us and we will remember him as long as we are alive.
Thank you for sharing your son and brother with us all.....

“Without some sort of loss, there is no gain"...Our loss is Heaven's gain.

Ryan was so very near and dear to my heart! Some of my most memorable moments included Ryan in them. He was our angel here on Earth, and I am so very thankful for the time I had Ryan in my life. “ *Sandra,
As a bereaved mother I know the agony you are suffering and know that you have the most difficult journey ahead of you. I will be praying that the days, weeks, months to come will be gentled by God's grace and pray He provides you and Dara with a peaceful heart. I remember so well the hours spent together, chatting, when our little boys practiced ball. One year we were on the same team and Ron was an assistant coach for Ryan & Brandon's team. Such sweet memories will carry you in the days ahead. Our love & deepest sympathy, David, Fredia, & Brandon Christopher and in memory of Damon Christopher.*

“ To Aunt Sandra and Dara.

This is so hard to take for all of us right now, but Heaven sure is Brighter now. We are about to get enough of The Daniel's Clan there to start our own Football Team. Sure look forward to being a member of that Winning Team one day.

I keep thinking about this song. It's helped me so much since Chase went to be with our Lord, and our Family up Above. "Heaven's Sounding Sweeter All The Time".

Our Prayers and Condolences to Family and Friends. May The Good Lord Wrap His Loving Arms Around Each Of You During This Sad Time.

“ Ryan was the true meaning of "Gentle Giant". In his days at Catawba (where I met him) he never met a stranger and became instant friends with those he came in contact with his infectious smile and kindness. Ryan will truly be missed by his Catawba family and we pray that you find the comfort and strength you need today and the days that lie ahead.

My heart goes out to Ryans` family and loved ones. I pray Gods` loving hand comforts all who loved Ryan.
