“ I am sorry to hear of the loss of Shawn. I offer my condolences to the family during your time of bereavement. Continue to lean on family and friends for comfort. God wants us to lean on him to. He comforts us when we mourn on occasions like this. He tells at Revelation 21:4 that soon all things causing pain including death will be done away with. May you find the strength to endure in the days ahead.

“ We are deepest sorry for your loss.

I would like to take the opportunity to share an encouraging message found at John 5:28, 29 which states: "All those in the memorial tombs will come out." This passage states that in due time, our loving Creator, Jehovah God will resurrect those who had died.

The suffering you are facing today, will be done away with, because God has promised in Revelation 21:4 that "He will wipe out every tear from there eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." Your loved one will soon live again.

Hope this brings comfort to you and your family.
