“ Sandra was one of my very first friends as a child. We were close friends as kids and teenagers and I was with her that night in revival that she accepted Jesus as her Savior. We had a lot of good times together. Although we were not always consistently close over the years, I loved her. I'm sure she's enjoying Heaven right now and we will see her there someday.

“ I'm going to miss Sandra, the antics, the trying to keep me in line, but the joking around and just aggravating the fool out of her and Alice constantly was so therapeutic because of the laughter it produced. Sandra I love you and will always be thankful for the laughter and singing we got to share. Rest in peace sweet friend.
