“ Prayers of comfort and strength to Sandy's family during this difficult time. I got to know her at Eastwood Baptist Church and as a member of the Sunday School Class I am in. She was such a special lady and a great prayer warrior....I am blessed to call her my friend and am sad that she is no longer present in this world but know she is well and rejoicing with our Lord in heaven.

“ So sorry for the loss of Sandy, as we in Bowling Green knew her. Such a sweet christian lady. We loved her and enjoyed spending time with her and hearing of her adventures. She will be missed greatly. Thinking of the family and Gary in your loss.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I pray that you find comfort in Revelation 21:3-5. This scripture paints a picture of a world that is very different from what we see today. A world with no more sickness, pain and death...and it's not just a dream, it is a promise from God. He promises to reverse the effects of death and resurrect your precious one. You will never have to say a painful goodbye ever again! (John 5:28, 29) jw.org

“ Ms. Sandy was such an encourager to my husband and me in the six years we were living abroad in missionary work. She was always a prayer warrior for us and was one of the first to ask about our work and health when we were home on a break. Even when her health began to worsen, she was still more concerned about how we were doing. We are so grateful for our beautiful sister and will greatly miss her. We thank God for blessing all of us with Ms. Sandy.

“ Sorry for the family's loss. Sandy was a very sweet lady and was so active in our church.

Today may you find comfort, for God is present to walk with you through this difficult time of loss...

May you find peace, for God is present to care for your deepest need...

May you find hope, for God is present to assure you of his guidance in the days ahead.

“ Our senior adult group, the PrimeTimers, and our Eastwood Baptist Church family loved Sandy and will miss her deeply. She was so very active in all of the ministries of the church and loved everyone from children to seniors. She was so caring and kind to those in need and was such a prayer warrior. May God comfort the family and all who knew her. Her passing is such a loss in our church. We know, though, she is now with the Lord Jesus who is the Resurrection and the Life.

“ I loved Sandy very much! When my wife and I first attended Eastwood Baptist Church Sandy befriended us and made us feel welcomed. Sandy always put other people first. After my wife passed away Sandy continued to be my friend. We learned each other and love blossomed. Sandy was a very fine lady and companion. I will miss her very much, but I am grateful she no longer has to suffer in a body that was failing her. And Jesus will be her companion for eternity. Sandy was a gift to me from God!
