

Sandra Hess Hodge

March 17, 2018

Sandra Elaine Hodge passed away March 17, 2018, joining her sister and father who preceded her in death. She was 48 years old, and suffered many illnesses in recent years. Sandra was bright and beautiful, and very artistic who inherited her green eyes and talented hands from her father whom she greatly missed and talked about often. She loved animals and was very good at training them. She even loved bears and snakes. One of the happier times in her life was working at Smithgall Woods.

Surviving her are her three sons, Zachary, Kelsey, and Seth; and her mother, Ingrid, who wants to tell her a bit late that she was loved and who will take care of her beloved dog, Abigail. A big Thank You goes to her special friend Natalie who supported her so much, as well as to the doctors at Northeast Georgia who treated her. No formal service is planned.

“ Sandra and I were close friends in high school and beyond. She was very fun to be around and always brought a smile. She introduced me to my wife Kelli whom was her best friend throughout their childhoods. I'm very sorry that we lost touch over the years. Go rest and enjoy the peace Sandra. We will see you there some day.
