“ I knew Sandee growing up in middle school and high school. She was a smart, savvy and beautiful person. She was kind and loving. I regret not keeping in touch with her the past twenty years or so. I remember she had rock star posters in her bedroom growing up. I only had one perm in my life, and she was the administrator. I looked like a blonde poodle for quite some time. I will miss her laugh, but most of all I will miss her generous smile. Her smile was easy and genuine.
