“ Sarah was my next door neighbor in Buford for many years. She was a very kind, friendly, energetic person who probably never met a stranger. She was always nice to my kids and we even bought one of their cars, many years ago, for our daughter who was turning 18. We knew, knowing Maron, that the car would be in tip top shape. Sarah will be truly missed but I know she is loving on Jesus and Maron right now!
