“ My dad was the silliest man I know. Even when he wasn't feeling happy he would find ways to make everyone else laugh. I will miss his random messages and teaching him how to video chat with my girls. The world lost another beautiful soul too soon. I'm sad for everything he's missing out on but I know he'll always be with me. Love you Dad.

I was a friend of your dad's in school, and also remember him as being very fun loving. He was popular and a natural athlete, and loved playing football and baseball. Sorry that I never kept in touch after we graduated. Just heard of his death. I'm sorry for your loss, but happy to read that he had a family and was loved. Mark Dunsmore
