“ I feel privileged to have meet and got to know Scott whislit he was here in OZ. Having spent alot of time with him, it really surprized me when i found out he was only 20 at that time, because the head on his shoulders was full of wisdom beyond his years. I will never forget our great conversations and laughs along the way. My deepest sympathies go to his family and friends. Craig

“ I met Scott a few years ago and he definitely left his impression on me. Scott and I would stay up talking after everyone was asleep and he would tell me about his dreams and wants and you always knew just by looking into his eyes how genuin of a person he was. He accomplished so much in his short time here with us and I know he would have done something amazing with his adult life. We're going to miss you Scott ... Thank you for always just being yourself that fun happy lil brother that made us only hope to do better. I hope your family will be able to find the strength in God to carry on without you. I also hope they know the impact you have had on so many people in such a short time.

“ Meg
My prayers go with you during this tragic time in your life. Though I didn't know your son, I remember you speaking of him at one of the WORD meetings.

“ My prayers go out to the Moseley Family for this incredible loss of Scott. He will be missed greatly at work where we first met about 4 years ago and developed a friendship. There will never be enough words to describe what a great guy he is. He will always remain in my heart and mind that no one can ever take away. GOD bless the family. Ride on Bro.

“ We love love you guys and you are deep within our prayers, the pain you feel can only be covered by the blood of Jesus and I know He is your center. Stand strong in His grace and He will comfort you, at times is a lonely road but He is always there covering you with His grace. Don't be afraid to reach out to those you love and talk about yor son it will comfort you and those too. Remember Jesus is in control in spite of us so lean into Him and He will comfort. You are in our prayers and will stay there until we greet one another at the East gate! Love in Christ Bob and Lu

“ Scott was such a loyal and good friend. He was so easy to be around and enjoyed the little things in life. We would talk indie movies and music and hairstyles. He even inspired me to try getting dreadlocks. it didnt work out as well for me. I am saddened that a few years had passed since we had spoken due to distance. Scott will be terribly missed.

“ I love that Scott was a blessing to everyone he was around. I love that he was a fairly quiet guy, but he could make friends with anyone. I love that he had a great sense of humor that got better the more time you spent with him. I love that he loved life and learned from all his life experiences. I love that he would seek adventure with people or without them. I love how much he appreciated the beauty of God's creation. I love that he wouldn't want all the attention he's getting right now, but he deserves it and more. I love how many people agree that he was the best kind of friend (me included). I love how awesome and welcoming his family has been towards all of his friends. I love that I got to know him for most of his life. I love that this isn't the end, and I'll get to see him again.

We love you Scott

“ We had the privilege of having our dear Moseley family here in Michigan back in the 80's and 90's. As collective young parents, we embraced the blessing of each child that entered the world. Scott was the beautiful 'cap' on our beloved Moseley family. We were able to witness this well-loved and sweet child on our occasional fellowship gatherings, and always loved hearing the updates and wonderful developments in their family's lives throughout the years.

What a breathtaking young man he became...in heart, kindness, and a rich and adventurous life. He embraced life to the fullest.

We bind together with Jon, Margaret and family, in continued gratefulness for a life well-lived. Yet, being part of the same body, we also mourn with you and pray with you, and intercede for you unceasingly with thanksgiving.

Love,

Dave and Ann Strubler and family

“ The Lord is with you and Scott is with the Lord. Because the Lord is with you and Scott is with Him, I know Scott will always be close to you as well.

Looking forward to all of us being gloriously reunited in Heaven.

I love and respect your entire family and am so very sorry for your loss.

“ We are praying for the family during this very difficult time. Scott was tremendously talented and grew into a key innovator in algae science over the last 5 years. He joined our company at the age of 19 years old and we were all together in Australia to celebrate his 21st birthday. We'll always remember his smile, humor and gentle caring spirit - he is part of our family forever. Our hearts are broken over this tragedy and words cannot fully express how much we loved him and our prayers are with the family.
God blessed Scott and molded him into one of the finest young men I have ever known. Scott in turn spread his blessings to everyone he met and his friends. We love him and will miss him everyday - he made a lasting impact on our lives.

“ Words cannot describe how much i miss this guy. Scott started as just a coworker but our friendship grew fast. I cannot say enough about him. He was a hard worker and a AWESOME friend. I miss him so much and i pray for his family in this difficult time. Ride on my dear friend and your butt better be on the back of my bike every time i get on. You are my guardian angel now. I love you and miss you brother!

“ We knew Scott as a baby and young boy when you lived in Rochester. Then you moved to Atlanta so we watched your family grow up in pictures. What an awesome set of parents Scott had so we know he was loved and encouraged to be all God made him to be. Blessings and hugs for the whole family during this very sad time.

“ I got to know Scott at work over the past year. He was the epitome of a stand-up guy, the kind of person who would give you the shirt off of his own back. He was dependable & was the type of person you could always count on to come through. Scott will truly be missed.
