“ *David, Darlys and Heather,
Our hearts go out to you and your extended family during this terrible time of grief. Sean's passing came too soon for us, but Sean knew and loved God, and he is with Him now...in His comfort, and away from ever evil and frustrating thing that this world throws at us. I pray you will be comforted in knowing Sean no longer struggles and that he now sings praises to the King of Kings and the Lord who knows and holds all things in His power.
We always loved Sean and when he was younger, for a time period, he was a part of our family of boys. We will always remember the plans he and Kevin had to go to Georgia Southern and room together. That never happened for many reasons, and even though they grew up and led their own lives, we always remembered Sean and the closeness he and Kev shared during middle and high school. Once Sean went to Florida with us to visit my mother. That trip to the farm was memorable for all of us and full of lots of laughs. We'll always love Sean and remember you all as well. With much love, The McCloskeys-Craig, Glenda, Curtis, Kevin and Chris.*

Glenda and family, Thank you so very much for the kind words. The other day I was thinking of Kevin and wondering how he was doing. My heart is broken and I will never be the same. Thanks again, Darlys

“ Praying for Sean’s family! I know your hearts are heavy and sad. Addiction is a horrible thing and I hope you find peace that you did everything in your power to support, lift, help and love him. Praises that he is safe now in the arms of his Lord and Savior. 🍷🙏🍷

“ Sean, what a cute little boy you were. Every time Uncle Don talks about you, he says what a good ballplayer you were! If the love of your family could have saved you, you would still be here. Your struggles were just too much for you. May you rest in peace in the arms of the angels.
