

Sephora Pierre

September 28, 1978 - March 20, 2025

Sephora Pierre passed away at home in Dacula, GA on Thursday, March 20, 2025. Sephora was born on September 28, 1978 in PAP, Haiti where she grew up. She was the daughter of Pastor Jean Constant Pierre and Marie Ginette Lambert, the 6th of 7 children. Sephora married Roberson Pierre, and had one son Anderson Pierre both living presently in Haiti.

Sephora attended Pastor Luc Neree Elementary school, and Rene Descartes High school.

Sephora graduated Education science College, attended Law School. She worked as an Administrator, and was a High school Teacher for over 15 years. Sephora was an active member of Mission Evangelique of Haiti for many years until she traveled to the US in April 2023. In Georgia, Sephora attended Good nursing School and completed her certification as a CNA. She worked as a housekeeper at Marriott Hotel in Atlanta, and was a part time caregiver at Trinity Family Homecare Services. For the past year and a half.

She was exceptional and her smile and compassionate attitude were contagious. She will be missed dearly. We love her forever!

Everyone she came in contact with loved her, and she took it as a special duty to talk to them about God.

Sepho was a good Christian, with a fervent prayer life, a Counselor, a good friend, and presided praise and worship team, children groups all her life.

Over all, we lost a woman of God, a caring spouse, a loving mother, an exceptional sister and friend, way too soon. May God receive her soul!
