“ I didn't know your son or family, but my son was killed December 4, 2015. Also a senseless act of violence. Also 28 years old. I just wanted to share with you that I have gotten through by focusing my energy on my son's positive life, not on his senseless death. I've made it past Christmas, New Year's, Valentine's, and his birthday. You will too. Hug the people you love. Focus on your son's positive qualities and how those left a positive impact on this Earth. You will find strength.

“ Ms. Varnadore. I am a stranger who saw your televised interview regarding the senseless murder of your beloved son, Shane. My heart broke for you and your family. I grew up in Atlanta and despise what is happening here. My prayer is that God will give you the strength you need to endure this loss. I also want you to know that caring people with respect for life do still exist. God bless Shane as he is received in Heaven and to you as your future changes forever, My deepest sympathy. Rick

“ I am very sorry for your loss. There are few words one can say about this senseless tragedy, and even fewer words to comfort. All I can offer is may his memory be a blessing.

“ I had the pleasure of teaching Shane when he was a student at Phoenix High School. He was a very polite and respectful young man. He was a hard worker and never complained. I am very sorry for your loss.
