“ Sharon was my bestie, my beach roomie, my neighbor, my confidante, my shopping and lunch buddy, my bunko bud and much more. Words cannot describe the loss I feel now that she is gone. Heaven is brighter now that she is there. My life is brighter having known her. I will remember the laughs and giggles, the serious times and the Marguerita fun times and know that her friendship was a gift from above. I will see her again. Rest on heaven's beaches, Sharon. No sunscreen needed.
