“ My heart is crying after hearing the news of your passing. I truly regret that we let so much time pass without speaking on a regular basis like we use to. And now I won't get a chance to hear your voice ever again. I will always hold the memories of our road trip to Houston together. And how you were there for me when I was trying to mend from a broken heart. Words cannot express how much I appreciate that. I will miss you so much and all the fun we had. Keep the wind at your back and rest peacefully my friend. Til we meet again. Love you!! -Nicholas

“ Shaunah, words cannot express how much I cared about nor how shocked I am that you are gone. God now has another beautiful & kind hearted soul. May God Bless your family through this difficult time & help them cope with their loss. I am truly blessed to have had you in my life my friend, even if for a short time. I will never forget you.
