“ May you all gain comfort from the promise found at John 5:28,29. I know you all would love to see Mom again. Jesus was able to resurrect many before. GOD promises he'll do it again (Acts 24:15). My condolences are deeply expressed.

“ I'm so very sorry about your mother. She was the sweetest I've ever known. I'll will never forget when Michael died and your Mother came to me and brought one rose for she said that Michael was one of a kind. Your wonderful Mother was also one of a kind. You will be in my prayers.

“ God could not have blessed us with a greater set of aunts. Each one of the 7 sisters have their very own unique gift. Sherry's gift was that of love, humor and adventure. She and Mama were two peas in a pod and because of them and each of our aunts, we have incredibly fun memories that will last a lifetime. Now, Sissy is making memories in Heaven with our precious Lord and Savior and I can only imagine the joy she felt when she was welcomed by Jesus, Van, Maw Maw, Paw Paw and many more whose lives she touched. Things will not be the same without her, but to think of the incredible joy she is experiencing now and knowing that we will join her in glory one day brings comfort. Love you Sissy. Give Maw Maw & my Daddy big hugs from me!

“ My sincere condolences to the family. We can put full trust in what the Bible says about the dead living again because God is the one who gave life to all living creatures so he certainly is capable of restoring life to someone who has died (Acts 17:24,25).
