

Sherry Adele Blake Lee

June 6, 1948 - October 22, 2021

Sherry Blake Lee, formerly of Pell City, Alabama went home to be with the Lord on October 22, 2021, at the age of 73.

Sherry was preceded in death by her parents Albert (A.J.) Jefferson and Doris Blake; brother Jeffrey Blake; and sister Pam Blake Aro.

She is survived by her daughter Christy Cross (Michael); stepdaughter Stormy Haverkate (Chad); grandchildren Bre Tyldesley, Brody Tyldesley, and Bryson Tyldesley, bonus grandchildren Declan Cross, Rylan Cross, Quinlan Cross, Keigan Cross, and Sabel Haverkate; sister Brenda Blake Reece (Jim); and many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Sherry graduated from Pell City High School in 1966 and attended Jacksonville State University where she was a ballerina for the Marching Southerners. She worked as a beautician and real estate agent for many years while stirring up the best and most fun sorts of trouble along the way. Known from time to time as “Sistah” or “Mama Sherry” or “Ome” or “Girlfriend”. Sherry had a way of making friends quickly and endearing herself to those around her.

A Celebration of Life for Sherry will be held in Alpharetta, Georgia on November 5, 2021, at 2:30 p.m. in the Garden at Brooke Street Park.
