“ Wendy,

I am so sorry for your loss. I can't image the pain you and your family are going through. I know how you love all your children and how proud you are of all of them. To lose one of any of your children has to be the greatest heart break of anyone's life. I pray that even with all the pain you will be able to remember all the good times you had with him and keep those those special times up front in your heart.

If you ever need someone to talk to I will gladly be there for you!

Your friend,

Barbara Draffin
