“ So very sorry to hear Ms. B has gone home. My deepest sympathy to Greg and Mr. B as I know the pain of losing such a substantial family member from our life. I have only sweet memories of this beautiful lady. I used to watch her as she placed so much pride and love in her flowers, her birds, and her compost placement to add health back into the environment. Ms. Bryant was a woman of dignity, class, and respect. She loved her family and poured love into everything she did. I sincerely regret not staying in contact with her so that I could have expressed my gratitude for all that I learned from her and her family. There were too many fond memories of holidays, the Lakehouse, fishing etc. for me to put into words and I am so very sorry I did not get to say goodbye. If there is anything her remaining family needs...I am here and would welcome a phone call 404-548-4414. I sure will miss you Ms. B.
