“ My beautiful Aunt Stella was an amazing woman who brought so much joy, light and love into our lives. She was one of the reasons I am a Christian today. She had a beautiful voice and I loved to hear her sing. She instilled in me the love of southern gospel music, and sunrise services on Easter morning. She was a young woman, in her mid to late 20's when I was a child and in my teen years and she was such a great influence in my life. Not only did she talk to me about the Lord, she helped educate me on issues and choices that could affect my life. She helped teach me how to clean house and to fold towels the proper way. Come to think of it, she was a pretty smart lady, it was her house we practiced on. LOL. If you knew Stella, you loved her. I am so grateful she was a part of my life! Until we meet again, Stella, you will be sorely missed!
